Miss Woodford will give an informal tea next Wednesday to a few friends, to meet Mrs. Hodgins.

Miss Blair and Miss Lucas are hostesses for a luncheon at the Country Club next Saturday.

Mrs. Marix, wife of Captain Marix, will give a dinner next Friday night at her home on Kinau street.

Mrs. T. C. Riley won a first prize, Mrs. James Doeburg a second and Mrs. Lillian R. Evans the consolation prize at Mrs. Flebig's party on Thursday.

Mrs. A. Gartenberg is giving a children's party this afternoon for her two children. About thirty little friends have been invited. Games, German songs, refreshments, bonbons and a good time for children is the order of entertainment.

Miss Barrie Gamble gave a dinner last evening to a few friends, among whom were Miss Genevieve Jones, Messrs. Robertson, Shaw and Robertson, from Mello School, and Miss Gamble. Miss Barrie Gamble's dainty method of entertaining charmed the young people and gave them a most delightful evening. The decorations were charmingly arranged.

A party in which everyone had an enjoyable time was that given by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Blake last Monday night. Flags, flowers and ferns were effectively combined in decoration, and splendid music furnished inspiration for dancing, which was kept up until nearly midnight, when refreshments were served on the lanai and in the pergola adjoining the dining-room.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gere, Mr. and Mrs. Ginaux, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Frear, Mr. and Mrs. Lyser, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Nowell, Mr. and Mrs. Sayres, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew and others.

Mrs. E. A. Shuttleworth, wife of Captain Shuttleworth of the Second Infantry, Schofield Barracks, spent last week-end in Honolulu, the guest of Mrs. Gamble on Anapuni street.

An informal card party was given in the evening, in which Mrs. Edwards secured the ladies' first prize and Captain Gamble the first prize for gentlemen. Those present were Major and Mrs. Neville, Captain and Mrs. Edwards, Captain and Mrs. Gamble, Captain and Mrs. Cook, Miss Gamble, Miss Barrie Gamble and the guest of the occasion, Mrs. Shuttleworth.

A dinner is to be served tonight in the steerage of the West Virginia, which a number of local people have been anticipating for some time. Among the guests are Miss Case, Miss Helen Rockwell, Miss Babcock, Miss Irene Cooper, Miss Alice Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Sheedy, Lieut. and Mrs. James Pine, Lieut. and Mrs. Johnson, and others. Mrs. Sheedy is the chaperon.

Mrs. Flebig was the hostess at a card party yesterday when a number of friends passed a few hours pleasantly with "500." Her home at 1129 Makiki street was tastefully decorated with ferns and white caranations. The guests were Mrs. A. G. Ferguson, Mrs. A. P. Prescott, Mrs. James B. Monsarrat, Mrs. Kirk Porter, Mrs. Ernest Giesekie, Mrs. Anna F. Wright, Mrs. Claude Kellogg, Mrs. Martha Winters, Mrs. Florence Winters, Mrs. Elmer T. Winant, Mrs. Frederick Cooper, Mrs. Frederick Chandler, Mrs. Hobson, Mrs. Joseph French, Mrs. Lee Austin and Miss Elsie Sanders.

The first prize was won by Mrs. E. T. Winant, the second by Miss Florence Winters, and the consolation by Mrs. James Monsarrat.

On Thursday evening, January 11, Colonel and Mrs. David J. Rumbough gave an exceptionally dainty and highly appreciated dinner in honor of Captain and Mrs. C. A. Sturges of the Fifth Cavalry, Schofield Barracks.

Captain and Mrs. Shuttleworth of the Second Infantry, Captain and Mrs. E. T. Orton of the Fifth Cavalry were also guests. Captain and Mrs. P. W. Hand were also invited to complete the party and joined them with coffee. After dinner a number of delightful selections from the best operas were rendered on the new Victrola, which was one of Mrs. Rumbough's many Christmas presents.

At the annual meeting of the Outrigger Club held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Swinzy last Tuesday, a report of the various committees were given. A most successful year was reported, many improvements having been made to the buildings and grounds, and the new year was looked forward to with enthusiasm.

The club is limited to 200 members, and of these twenty-five may be senior people. As there is a large waiting list, it was voted to declare all those whose dues are delinquent on January 31 to be dropped from the list in order to give others an opportunity. Hitherto, the same rule has been in effect, except that the date of becoming delinquent has been March 31 heretofore.

The following list of officers were elected for 1912.
 President, Mrs. F. W. Swinzy.
 First vice president, Mrs. Timberlake.
 Second vice president, Mrs. Andrew Fuller.
 Secretary, Mrs. W. A. Wall.
 Treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Jones.

The directors are Mrs. Eben Low, Mrs. Raymond Brown, Miss Ehrhorn, Mrs. Montague Cooke, Mrs. Royal D. Mead, Mrs. C. F. Eckart and Mrs. John Soper.

Invitations are out for the play to be given by the College Club next Friday night at Punahou, Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell" is to be presented, with the following cast:
 Miss Clandon Miss Pope
 Miss Dolly Clandon Miss Ella Tucker
 Miss Gloria Clandon Miss Dillingham
 Maid Miss Peterson
